(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

On or about May 23, 2004 applicant received a notice of allowance. Applicant's attorney prepared the Fee Transmittal Form and sent it to the inventor to acquire a certified check to expedite issuance of the letters patent and send it in. Applicant's bank issued a check for $655.00 instead of $665.00, which was attached to the Fee Transmittal Form and cashed by the USPTO on about 7/7/2004. Applicant and his attorney were not sent a courtesy notification that an additional $10.00 was due. Nor was notice posted on Applicant's Attorney's PAIR account.

On October 7, 2004 Applicant's attorney was sent a Notice Regarding Drawings requiring additional figures to be submitted. Applicant's Attorney made arrangements for the additional Figure to be submitted and asked the issue branch to check and see if anything else was required for issuance. Applicant's attorney specifically made inquiry as to whether the issue fee had been paid and was told that it had been received. No mention was made that the fee was not for the full amount. On October 12, 2004, Applicant's Attorney discussed the drawing requirements with Reviewing Draftsman Son Lam and then submitted a missing Fig. 2E on October 13, 2004 electronically, and by mail on October 14, 2004. Applicant's Attorney while discussing this drawing requirement again asked the Draftsman if the USPTO computer showed that there were any other outstanding deficiencies and was told that the computer records indicated no additional requirements were outstanding to issue the patent.

On November 9, 2004, Applicant's Attorney again contacted the Issue Branch and made inquiry as to the delay in issuing the letters patent, and was informed that the computer showed that all fees had been paid and that the drawings corrections were entered in the file for the patent to issue and that an official inquiry would be filed to determine the cause of the delay. Had Applicant's Attorney been informed of the $10.00 fee deficiency, he would have promptly wired the same for the letters patent to issue. On 11/12/2004, Toni Hood contacted Applicant's Attorney and advised for the first time that the issue fee was $10.00 short and faxed a copy of the Notice of Abandonment..

Under the circumstances where repeated inquiries showed no deficiencies for letters patent (Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.) to issue, the abandonment was unavoidable. The abandonment should be withdrawn as inequitable.
